

Golden Days

Steve Aoki

I think I'm overdrinking
Life's too short anyway
I think I'm overthinking
My brain hurts anyway

I called you like a thousand times
Your alibi's running so wild in my head

It's only life
We got so much, we got so much time
It's only time
We're still so alive
I close my eyes and dream about you leaving
I close my eyes and you're still gone
It's only life
We got so much, we got so much time

Let's talk about the golden days, oh-oh, yeah
Let's talk about the golden days, oh-oh, yeah

I think I'm oversleeping
Tonight's too short anyway
I hate the hands I'm shaking
I'd rather be far away

I called you like a thousand times
Your alibi's running so wild in my head

It's only life
We got so much, we got so much time
It's only time
We're still so alive
I close my eyes and dream about you leaving
I close my eyes and you're still gone
It's only life
We got so much, we got so much time

Let's talk about the golden days, oh-oh, yeah
Let's talk about the golden days, oh-oh, yeah

It's only life
And we got so much, we got so much time
It's only time
We're still so alive
I close my eyes and dream about you leaving
I close my eyes and you're still gone
It's only life
And we got so much, we got so much time

Let's talk about the golden days, oh-oh, yeah
Let's talk about the golden days, oh-oh, yeah

It's only life
Let's talk about the golden days, oh-oh, yeah
It's only life
Let's talk about the golden days, oh-oh, yeah
