

Last One To Know

Steve Aoki

Got a matchbook in my pocket
Got my hand on it right now
If I lit a match in this office
I'd burn this motherfucker down

I thought we were on the same side
Crazy, but solidified
Tell me what you think has changed
We were seeing eye to eye and then
Somethin' started happenin'
Before I had a chance to say
I know

I had a plan but I never had time
I had a reason but I never had rhyme
I shoulda known it was over, but I'm
The last one to know
The last one to know, now

The last one, last one
Last one to know, now
Last one, last one
Last one to know, now
Last one, last one
Last one to know, now
Last one, last one
Last one to know

Had a call about you this mornin'
It said that you were movin' on
It took everything in that moment
Just to hold my fucking tongue
Just to hold my fucking tongue

Because we were on the same side
Crazy, but solidified
Somehow, you got carried away
We were seeing eye to eye and then
Somethin' started happenin'
I don't need you to explain
'Cause I know

I had a plan but I never had time
I had a reason but I never had rhyme
I shoulda known it was over, but I'm
The last one to know
The last one to know, now

The last one, last one
Last one to know, now
Last one, last one
Last one to know, now

I didn't know I was bringin' you down
I didn't lose what you thought you had found
And now you're tellin' me you're leavin' me, oh
The last one to know

Under a black sky
Tell me that it's not my fault
Is it so?
Under a black sky
Tell me that it's not my fault
Is it so?
Tell me that it's not my fault
Is it so?
And I know

I had a plan but I never had time
I had a reason but I never had rhyme
I shoulda known it was over, but I'm
The last one to know
I didn't know I was bringin' you down
And now you're tellin' me you're leavin' me, I'm
The last one to know

The last one, last one
