

Perfect

Steve Aoki

I found a girl and I like her
I done been around some girls but I like her
My whole gang agrees I might wife her
I want you to stay with me no one-nighters
I found a girl and she's perfect
Haven't been around the world, hope she's worth it
Listening to your heart, I swear I got first dibs
Coming for your love, I swear I'll put the work in

Cause I found a girl and I like her
I have been around some girls but I like her
My whole gang agrees I might wife her
I want you to stay with me no one-nighters
I found a girl and she's perfect
I done been around the world, hope she's worth it
Listening to your heart, I swear I got first dibs
Coming for your love, I swear I put the work in

Got a pretty little shorty
She the baddest
Vera Wang high fashion
Got her own bag, she never asking
She got her heart broke, turned her to the saddest
Till I pulled up in that foreign
Its a fast whip
Stared so hard
I almost crashed started laughing
Switch the mood, Jimmy Choos, what you think about me and you
We can't lose, different views, you know we can pick and choose
I found a girl and she's special
Stick around, I swear I might bless her
I know what was up when I met you

And I gave you my trust, there is no letting loose
I found a girl and I like her
I've been around some girls but I like her
My whole gang agrees I might wife her
I want you to stay with me no one-nighters
I found a girl and she's perfect
I done been around the world, hope she's worth it
Listening to your heart, I swear I got first dibs
Coming for your love, I swear I'll put the work in

Cause I found a girl and I like her
I done been around some girls but I like her
My whole gang agrees I might wife her
I want you to stay with me no one-nighters
I found a girl and she's perfect
I done been around the world, hope she's worth it
Listening to your heart, I swear I got first dibs
Coming for your love, I swear I put the work in

24hrs
I found a girl and I like her
There is no way I would one-night her
I told her drinking and driving is dangerous
A day without you is the strangest

Hey shorty I heard you at Dim Mak
I painted me and you could go to shows together
All my guys say that
I'm in love with you
Girl, let's make a promise
We don't always keep it honest
We living for right now
No worry about the comments
Hey shorty
I know you don't know me
But I love that you move with Aoki

I found a girl and I like her
I done around some girls but I like her
My whole gang agrees I might wife her
I want you to stay with me no one-nighters
I found a girl and she's perfect
I done been around the world, hope she's worth it
Listening to your heart, I swear I got first dibs
Coming for your love, I swear I'll put the work in

Cause I found a girl and I like her
I done been around some girls but I like her
My whole gang agrees I might wife her
I want you to stay with me no one-nighters
I found a girl and she's perfect
I done been around the world, hope she's worth it
Listening to your heart, I swear I got first dibs
Coming for your love, I swear I'll put the work in
