

Beautiful Diana

Steve Forbert

Smile and the world smiles back at you
Girl there's not much I won't do
And it all comes through so clear to me
Love, love is hope and hope is life
And if you will be my wife
It could all come through so new to me

Beautiful Diana...

Please, look inside and let me know
Is there somewhere we can go
That could conjure up those dreams you see
You with your past all mixed with mine
Being here for all this time
I believe you're what you seem to be

Beautiful Diana...

Speak and I can't ignore your sound
Through the campaign trails down town
You come charging from your picket fence
Laugh in the smoke where we can touch
I'm beside you with my crotch
And I know you're more than innocence

Beautiful Diana...
