

Diamond Sky

Steve Forbert

Diamond Sky, tell me the truth
Will there be any real satisfaction?
Diamond Sky, oh, well, tell me the truth
Are my wheels spinning closer to traction?

I look up to you 'cause nothin' else makes any sense now
I look up to you 'cause ev'rything else brings me down
I look up to you and all of your stars up there twinkling
I look up to you and all of the wise things you know

Mister Diamond Sky, tell me the truth
Will there be any real satisfaction?
Diamond Sky, oh, well, tell me the truth
Are my wheels spinning closer to traction?

I look up to you 'cause yours is the beautiful silence
I look up to you and I wait for to see what you'll say

Waiting here tonight
Waiting here tonight
Waiting there tonight
Waiting here tonight...

I look up to you 'cause nothin' else makes any sense now
I look up to you and I wait for to see what you'll say

Mister Diamond Sky, tell me the truth
Will there be any real satisfaction?
Diamond Sky, oh, well, tell me the truth
Are my wheels spinning closer to traction?
