

Over With You

Steve Forbert

Keep this in back of your remarkable mind
Something's don't make sense
And some are so hard to find

Over with you
Over and through
Over with you, my love

Everyone's so different from one another
It's so hard... sometimes
Everyone's got their own wants and druthers
I might lose my mind

Over with you
Over and through
Over with you, my love

You grew less impress
With all my cans that clatter
Still on shore... they shine
I guess that you just guess
At all your plans that matter
Won't much more with mine

Over with you
Over and through
Over with you, my love

What means most to me
As in time you'll see
Is your happiness and peace of mind

What I wish for you
Should a wish come true
Is your happiness and your peace of mind

Over with you
Over and through, my love

Forever is such an easy word to say or write on paper
All things end in time
We have been together far too many nights and days for Us to end unkind

Over with you
Over and through
Over with you, my love

Keep this in back of your remarkable mind
Something's don't make sense
And some are so hard to find

Over with you
Over and through
Over with you, my love
