

Something Special

Steve Forbert

There's something special in your arms
There's something magic in your kiss
There's something wondrous
In the words you say to me
There's such a silvery moon high
Outside your window in the sky
And it's shinin' on just the things
I've hoped would one day be

Ooh, the moon is gleaming
Through the blinds it's beaming
I'm awake and dreaming
Dreams of me and you

You're such a lovely, smart, sweet girl
And I'm gonna wella-welcome you to my world
And I'm givin' you all I've got to give of love that's true
There's something special in your arms
There's something magic in your kiss
And I'm feelin' so glad I'm lyin' here and next to you

All through the night
The wild ocean waves keep crashing
And in your room
There's clean, serene perfume...

Ooh, the moon is gleaming
Through your blinds it's beaming
I'm awake and dreaming
Dreams of me and you...

You're such a lovely, smart, sweet girl
And I'm gonna wella-welcome you to my world
And I'm givin' you all I've got to give of love that true
There's something special in your arms
There's something magic in your kiss
And I'm feelin' so glad I'm lyin' here and next to you
And I'm feelin' so glad I'm lyin' here and next to you
