

That'd Be Alright

Steve Forbert

Hold on tight 'cuz it's comin' up a full moon
You might find that you need some company
This wild night could take any turn at all soon
I don't mind if it brings you back to me

That'd be alright
That'd be alright
That'd be alright
Would be what I'd say
That'd be alright
That'd be alright
That'd be alright
If it goes that way

Headlights shine from the cars along the cove road
God knows I'm wishing yours were shinin' too
You might find that that same old drive you drove road
All those times could be good again for you

That'd be alright
That'd be alright
That'd be alright
Would be what I'd say
That'd be alright
That'd be alright
That'd be alright
If it goes that way

People try to tell you when the moon gets full
No one's much affected by the full moon's pull
People try to tell you when the moon gets full
No one's much affected by the full moon's pull

Hold on tight 'cuz the moon is gettin' high now
Car tires squeal back on Ardent Avenue
It's alright if you think you're droppin' by now
You might feel like it's what you wanna do

That'd be alright
That'd be alright
That'd be alright
Would be what I'd say
That'd be alright
That'd be alright
That'd be alright
If it goes that way
