

That'll Be Alright

Steve Forbert

Hold on tight 'cause it's coming up a full moon
You might find that you need some company
This wild night could take any turn at all soon
I don't mind if it brings ya back to me

That'll be all right
That'll be all right
Would be what I'd say
That'll be all right
That'll be all right
If it goes that way... hey

Headlights shine from the cars along the cove road
God knows I'm a-wishing yours were shining too
You might find that the same old drive you drove road
All those times, could be good again for you

That'll be all right
That'll be all right
Would be what I'd say
That'll be all right
That'll be all right
If it goes that way...

People try to tell you when the moon gets full
No one's much affected by the full moon's pull
People try to tell you when the moon gets full
No one's much affected by the full moon's pull

Hold on tight 'cause the moon is getting high now
Car tires squeal back on Ardent Avenue
It's all right if you think you're dropping by now
You might feel like it's what you wanna do

That will be all right
Girl, that'll be all right
Would be what I'd say
That'll be all right
That'll be all right
If it goes that way

That'll be all right
Ya, that'll be all right
Would be what I'd say
That'll be all right
That'll be all right
If it goes that way... hey...
Hey (Rock it)
