

Listen

Steve Green

I can read your word, but I may not know your mind.
I can think I hear your voice, but I might be runnin' blind.
And I need you in this particular situation.
Yes I need you like I always do.

So I will wait in quiet earnest anticipation and I will listen to you.
Listen close, listen deep way beyond the silence. Listen to words you speak.
I will pray thy kingdom come, I will pray thy kingdom come, I will pray thy will be done and I will listen.

I can talk all night to the ones who say they know.
I can take their advice and where they point I can go.
But I need you to give my heart direction.
Yes I need you like I always do.

So I will wait in quiet earnest anticipation and I will
listen to you.
Listen close, listen deep way beyond the silence. Listen to words you speak.
I will pray thy kingdom come, I will pray thy kingdom come, I will pray thy will be done and I will listen.

Yes I need you to give my heart direction and I know that you will see me through.
So I will listen wait

So I will wait in quiet earnest anticipation and I will
listen to you.
Listen close, listen deep way beyond the silence. Listen to words you speak.
I will pray thy kingdom come, I will pray thy kingdom come, I will pray thy will be done and I will listen.
