

Anything but Love

Steve Hackett

You can blow me a kiss
Before meeting your lover
You can flash a sweet smile
Never blowing your cover
Then scream in rage
At my misdemeanours
Gaslight my days
In a dance where you're the leader

But you'll never get away
With anything but love

You can ridicule my dreams
And isolate my friends
Tell me only you
Are where it starts and ends
Leave me with your picture
But keep me in the dark
Tell me I'm so blessed
To orbit round your star

But you'll never get away
With anything but love
