

Cassandra

Steve Hackett

Give me a sign if you know about the future
Tell me the reason why you look oh so sad
Somewhere in time another premonition
Or is it a memory of what happened in the past

Cassandra, when we cry
Cassandra, the legend dies
Cassandra, stay the night
Cassandra, till sunrise

Open the door if you can brave the danger
Haven't you seen by now what lies ahead
Nobody listens till it's too late to change it
Was in suspicion no matter what you said

Cassandra, when you cry
Cassandra, the legend dies
Cassandra, stay the night
Cassandra, till sunrise
Cassandra when you cry
Cassandra, till sunrise
