

Enter the Ring

Steve Hackett

I feel your eyes, island calls me
Bridge between worlds, make the journey
Bright lights shine through fog and rain
Boatman's song the price you pay

On the outside looking in
Haze of cigarettes and gin
Open door the world beyond
Off the cliff the fool jumps in

Magic mountain band tunes in Kaleidoscopic thrills and spins
Carousel waltz, don't touch the ground
Faster turns the merry-go-round

Sleep by day, fly by night
Pleasure gardens of delight
Changing horses, musical chairs
Wildfire burning through the fair
