

Picture Postcard

Steve Hackett

Don't want a picture
To pin upon my wall
Just want someone to
Help me forget that's all

I don't want to be here on my own
Hungry as a dog without a bone

Don't want a postcard
Showing some distant view
Just want someone to
Laugh when I blow a fuse

I don't want to be here on my own
Hungry as a dog without a bone

And I don't want to be alone
I don't want to cry and moan

Yeah and I don't want to be alone
I don't want to cry and moan...I

Nobody can hear a single word I say

As I walk the floor
Seems there's nothing more
Time to go to sleep once more

But in my dreams there's a place
Where it's never too late
I see nothing has changed
And that's where you still remain

(Don't want a picture, don't want a postcard)
