

The Devil's Cathedral

Steve Hackett

I am the stand-in for Mr K
A blade of grass was in my way
I studied his moves, followed his form
Easy as breathing, it became the norm

I am the stand-in for Mr K
I never needed him anyway
I waited in the wings, with all his precious things
I took his life and then his wife

Stand in...

Stand in...

An understudy cast in song
A Shakespeare villain all along
Moon in Scorpio, here and gone
If life's an opera, bring it on...

Bring it on...
