

Do I Stand Alone

Steve Lukather

I opened my eyes
As the sun came up
It's the star of a brand new day

I hear the sounds of the world
Ringing in my ears
Then the hope
Starts to drift away

I look to the screen
In my disbelief
Another human right disappears
Who do I blame what can I do
As I watch the hope turn to fear

When was the moment
It all began to fade
I don't remember
Saying it's ok

Don't try to take away my freedom
Don't try to take away my voice
No matter which side you're on you're wrong
'Cause I don't have another choice
Do I Stand Alone

As I take to the streets
I see others like me
I'm not the only one

I look for a smile
For a friendly face
But the war has just begun

The devalued our dollar
Devalued our lives
Powered by lies and greed
As the poor lie hungry
And the rich die fat
We've got to fill the need

Now is the moment
Our protest must be heard
Their madness can't stop us
Gotta make them
Hear these words

Don't try to take away
My freedom
Don't try to take away
My voice
No matter which side you're on
You're wrong
'Cause I don't have another choice
Do I Stand Alone
