

Enough

Steven Malcolm

Just a little bit isn't enough no
Cause you got it all and I want that
Patient and you're someone I can trust
Teach me how to love and you got that
Just a little bit isn't enough
Cause 9 times out of 10 I be needing
Just a little more to pick me up
I need you like the air that I'm breathing

Like the truth that I'm preaching
Me without your love is like
The sea without no deep end
I be on yo line
Overtime be what I'm needing
9 times out of 10 we be tripping for no reason

Fighting over nothing
Then we pivot end up even
Entangled in love right at the table
Like we Pinkett
Love can be so blind baby
Trust me I done seen it
Crazy how the worst for us exactly what we needing

Told me just a little ain't enough
She gon' need my all or you know what
She gon' end up dippin' wit the next
Then post it on the gram for the flex
My wife these days needs more than talent, game, and sex
My wife these days needs more than just a good morning text
Life these days
Time is a value and complex
Till she tell me she love me then it all makes sense

Just a little bit isn't enough no
Cause you got it all and I want that
Patient and you're someone I can trust
Teach me how to love and you got that
Just a little bit isn't enough
Cause 9 times out of 10 I be needing
Just a little more to pick me up
I need you like the air that I'm breathing

Lord I pray everyday
You protect my soul
Give me faith show me
How I'm supposed to play my role
Be a man, okay bet
But was never shown
Let alone
Raise a family of my own
Daddy was locked up
Mama dependent
Feeling abandoned
From what her pops done
Needing attention
So the addiction

Felt like stop button
Not to mention
Making a kid
Made her feel love
For the first time
I feel loved
Swear I give my all for this feeling
Rather kill myself than give it up
Cause life without you not fulfilling

Just a little bit isn't enough no
Cause you got it all and I want that
Patient and you're someone I can trust
Teach me how to love and you got that
Just a little bit isn't enough
Cause 9 times out of 10 I be needing
Just a little more to pick me up
I need you like the air that I'm breathing

I need you like the air that I'm breathing
