

Even Louder

Steven Malcolm

Even if the drum stops beating
My soul will keep on singing
Even louder, even louder
Even when my eyes can't see it
I will sing 'til I believe it
Even louder, even louder

Yeah, so undeserving, yet we worship
Give Him all the praise, just humble servants
'Til sweat and tears, 'til no more fears
Singin' the glory of the Gospel out to every end
This life that resided my tongue
You took for Your name to become a tool for Your will to be done, it's crazy
See me as a son when I should be shun
With nothing Lord I'm just desperate
You covered me by Your blood
You covered me with grace
And a love so unconditional has got me on my face everyday, yeah (Let's go)
Be the praise of the saints, yeah
Goes my praise everyday, uh

Even if the drum stops beating
My soul will keep on singing
Even louder, even louder
Even when my eyes can't see it
I will sing 'til I believe it
Even louder, even louder

Uh, my God is stronger than any sin that I hold
More precious than any silver and gold
Told myself that my sin made me unworthy
But truth is, I'll never be perfect
But Christ took the burden, took the lust off my eyes
The pride of my heart
Ain' all the flaws, nailed them to the cross
Threw 'em to the ocean, showed me I was chosen
Shifted all my focus 'til my eyes became open
Tossed out my doubts, showed me my way out
See I once was lost, now ya boy been found
See true grace abounds and glory be to God
And ain't no lookin' back like a pillar of that salt
Me, I give my all despite my downfalls
Where many see me fail, only You see me prevail
The bigger depression hits, the louder my praise gets
The bigger depression hits, the louder my praise gets, come on

Even if the drum stops beating
My soul will keep on singing
Even louder, even louder
Even when my eyes can't see it
I will sing 'til I believe it
Even louder, even louder

Even if the drum stops beating
My soul will keep on singing
Even louder, even louder
Even when my eyes can't see it

I will sing 'til I believe it
Even louder, even louder

When I lift my voice
Heaven comes to earth
When I sing this song
I feel You respond
When I lift my voice
Heaven comes to earth
When I sing this song
I feel You respond

I feel You respond
I feel You respond
I feel You respond
I feel You respond

Even if the drum stops beating
My soul will keep on singing
Even louder, even louder
Even when my eyes can't see it
I will sing 'til I believe it
Even louder, even louder
Even if the drum stops beating
My soul will keep on singing
Even louder, even louder
Even when my eyes can't see it
I will sing 'til I believe it
Even louder, even louder
