

Truth Story

Steven Malcolm

The diary of an introvert
Speak so vividly
Anchor for change
Play my role effortlessly
Voice for the voiceless
Bring the world hope when I speak
Built for infinity
They can't break up a link
Got a buzz now, name ringin'
I'm on one knee
Silent prayer for the journey
And all my enemies
Rocky seed
Yet I grew me a family tree
It's jus' T, Z, and me what else do I need

All facts
Based on a truth story
Based on the simple fact
That I'm living God gets the glory
He brought me out of the mud
Can't make this up I done seen
The darkest be made clean
The furthest given the keys
Given freedom
Broken every way
But I ran into a healer
Life needed a fix
Then I ran into a dealer
City need a star
So I turned into a leader
Crazy how he turn a blind man into a seeker

Alien like a Neptune this is the for real me
How that boy stay out of sight but they still feel me 4th quarter in
Jus' a set up for the kill scene
Living to inspire wit the dream
Look how he filled me
Always held a lot inside
Now, what a filling
Never should a made it
But a real one in the building
Cook up at the BNB
Feel like it got no ceiling
Sky is the limit
It took time to reveal it

Grind to conceal it
Faith to fulfill it
Truth to reveal it
You control the waves watch 'em listen
