Me, I been killing it lately I'm planning on keeping it up
I had to pray about all of my problems, so he know what's up
I had to go against the odds, look how I evened it up
Ain't it ironic how I took a beat and I'm beating it up, woah
We goin up just look at my team, we keep goin up
Trying to keep it together like stitches and that's why I be in the cut
That's why I be out the way on my grind, I hope that I'm sleeping enough
I must be doing something right
Look how I keep going up

Heaven knows imma just keep going up
Set a goal you gonna achieve it or what Always blessed I'm never believing in luck
Used to fold under that pressure, but now it ain't even enough, yeah
Woah, Brody I got the sauce the drip, whatever you call it
I want my career to something like LeBron, you know forever I'm ballin'
Oh, I ain't the truth, oh, I ain't the goat, woah, I'm begging your pardon I'm tryna go up like a rocket, but it won't happen if I don't put my heart i n
