

I Swear

Stevie B

I'm not the owner to this song.

Lyrics

Hey baby
I found something in you I never saw
in no one else
I know that you
feeling all alone
you trying hard not to cry girl dont cry

I wanted so much better for you so I'm sending you this love letter
now you see just what I feel for you
and everything that I do

I swear by the moon
and the stars
I will be there for you
where ever you are
baby I swear
baby baby
I believe in us girl
cause thats what makes
our love go right

and the stars
no matter how far
baby baby
lets build that life togther that is why I want you girl

It's been so long since you been happy don't you know that I wanna make you smile again if you just give me a half a chance to show you
just how much I need you

Girl I know that you need a friend in me baby girl
you and me should be much more you see can't let you go
can't get away from me no

that is why

baby baby

baby baby
let build that life togther

baby baby

baby baby
