Paradise

Stevie B

Waiting, waiting
Waiting, waiting
Waiting, waiting
Waiting

Listen up while I tell you this
You better listen well
Don't ever fall in love 'til you know it well
With someone that you trust

'Cause I'm back again with a lover and friend
And she's touched my soul
She sticks by my side in the sun and the rain
And I won't let her go

But God knows I try
To give lovers everything
And each time, I die
But you let me smile again
With someone that I adore

I can't believe I'm waking up in paradise
'Cause I've been waiting for you all my life
Waiting, waiting
I can't believe I'm waking up in paradise
I only feel this when you're by my side
Waiting, waiting

You better listen up, you better listen well
'Cause I'm back to rock your world
I've been gone for awhile and I'm back with a smile
'Cause in God we trust

Don't ever doubt your man when you think he's down
'Cause you got to pass the test
'Cause he depends on you and he needs your love
You see, you've got to be there

'Cause God knows I try
To give others everything
And each time, I die
But you made me smile again
With someone that I adore

I can't believe I'm waking up in paradise
'Cause I've been waiting for you all my life
Waiting, waiting
I can't believe I'm waking up in paradise
I only feel this when you're by my side
Waiting, waiting

I can't believe I'm waking up in paradise
'Cause I've been waiting for you all my life
Waiting, waiting
I can't believe I'm waking up in paradise
I only feel this when you're by my side
Waiting, waiting

I can't believe I'm waking up in paradise
'Cause I've been waiting for you all my life
Waiting, waiting
I can't believe I'm waking up in paradise
I only feel this when you're by my side
Waiting, waiting

Waiting, waiting
Waiting, waiting
