

Real Girl

Stevie Hoang

I need myself a real girl
Yeah this one goes out to all the real girls across the world

I just wanna find that special girl
There's nothing that I want more in this world
Someone to be there
Who knows just what I need

She'll be my number one fan, I'll take her to my show
We could have a good time, ain't gotta spend no dough
Someone I could chill with
That's the kinda girl for me

Someone I could long with, spend my time alone with
That's all I need
Someone who could trust me
Should be there to love me unconditionally

I need myself a real girl, real girl
One just like you
I need myself a real girl, real girl
To give my love too
She gotta be street and how to treat a man
She gotta be cool with my homies and my friend
I'm searching for a real girl, real girl
A girl just like you

I had enough for fakin' which one I wanna be's
I gotta find the girl to be true to me
Through good and bad times
She'll always be right there

From London to Hong Kong to Tokyo
From Europe to L.A
No matter where I'll go
I'll always be searching for a special girl for me, yeah...

Someone I could long with, spend my time alone with
That's all I need
Someone who could trust me
Should be there to love me unconditionally

I need myself a real girl, real girl
One just like you
I need myself a real girl, real girl
To give my love too
She gotta be street and how to treat a man
She gotta be cool with my homies and my friend
I'm searching for a real girl, real girl
A girl just like you
