

Violet And Blue

Stevie Nicks

The warning is
Even when the warning is

So where have you gone?
Have you gone so far from the eyes that
Speak trouble?
And even when the warning is overwhelming

Well, it's hard to hide from
Eyes that are all over you
That only some
Make you lose your composure

"Well, it's hard on my heart"
Said, "Well open your eyes"
"Yeah, it gets harder everyday"
Said, "I need to know now "

Soon you will be gone
Take your violet and blue
Mornings with you

So you hide out
Like you think that you never left
Tried to tell him that
His heart is in his hands, yes

"Well it's hard on my heart"
He said, "Open your eyes, yeah"
"It gets harder everyday"
He said, "I need to know that"

Soon you will be gone
Take your violet and blue
Mornings with you

Ten thousand times
I tried to tell you
When you close your eyes
Well, I can't see inside you

With the touch of your hand
Well, it starts again

Every though the warning is

So we both play
It gets under your skin
And we both the love the road
But the roads are different

"You know it's hard on my heart"
He says, "Open your eyes, yeah"
"It gets harder everyday"
He says, "I need to know"

Soon you will be gone

Take your violet and blue
Morning with you

Take it with you
Take it with you, come on
Take it with you, baby
Take it with you

Make you lose your composure
It's overwhelming
Make you lose your composure
It's overwhelming
