Another Episode

Sticky Fingers

I was unkind, let it all unwind
I burnt that shit to the ground
Deep in denial, they put me on trial
Then it all came crashin' down
I was ran out of town

I don't need to see no miracle
Gutted heavy, I'ma let it show (I say it, I say it)
I don't want to ever let you go
I don't want another episode (I say it)

We pray for the rain
That's when the floods came
Pulled under the wave
Now I'm surfin' the break

I don't need to see the end of time
I just want a little peace of mind (I say it, I say it)
Half our love, I'm fuckin' way too blind
Now I'm searchin' for a reason why (I say it)

We pray for the rain
That's when the floods came
Pulled under the wave
Now I'm surfin' the break

I don't ever let you go, never hesitate
The cause are hungry for my soul to take
As I pluck away these strings, hypnotic every day
High up and then forbid 'em, there to take you
Need sedation, paper chasin'
They don't know we all been waitin'
I'ma let it go now 'cause I know
That we will get ours if you know what I'm sayin'
Allegations, pour thanks from the bottom right to the top
Soon you got nothin', I let it flow like somethin' toxic
Lurkin' in the dark and it's upon us
I made a promise
We been playin' in the devil's backyard, let's be honest

I don't need to see no miracle
Gutted heavy, I'ma let it show (I say it, I say it)
I don't want to ever let you go
I don't want another episode (I say it)

We pray for the rain
That's when the floods came
Pulled under the wave
Now I'm surfin' the break

I was unkind, let it all unwind
Deep in denial, they put me on trial
Then it all came, all came crashin' down
I was ran out, ran out of town
