

Love Song

Sticky Fingers

Won't cut you loose yet, we're digging out a home
Although my lines don't change and you're set on breaking it of f
I best forget though I still miss you
Dreaming of a day I ain't living like a plastic bag

It's the right thing
Feel the tightening
If you're gone I'm already there
It's the wrong thing
Feel the tightening
All the love lost I know it's there

I used to push, I was tougher then love digs the shovel's gone
I used to push like a Camelot, now I'm set in stone
I best forget though I still miss you
When life feels so vacant I can't taste it

It's the right thing
(For the lost, for the lazy)
Feel the tightening
If you're gone I'm already there
(And you don't care)
It's the wrong thing
Feel the tightening
All the love lost I know it's there
