

Run It Back

Still Woozy

Love it when ya...
When ya...

I hate it when you mad
Love but then obsess
Always running back
But I ain't no running back
Ain't no sharing now
I just wanna love you without ever holding back

Night moves so smooth
And I know we're in the right mood to get a little loose

Our bodies leaving the ground
This, this, this
It's better with my hand right on your hip, hip, hip
And every sound needs no words
To be heard, I've learned That, that, that, that
That you Know me better than I know myself, and Know it better when we both come running
Made a baby, we both be coming
That's the right sounds, ain't nothing Wrong with a little check
Girl, you know that
Still, when ya...

I hate it when you mad
Love but then obsess
Always running back
But I ain't no running back
Ain't no sharing now
I just wanna love you without ever holding back

I hate it when you mad
Love that doesn't last
Always running back
Girl, I gotta run it back
Ain't no sharing now
I just wanna kiss you without ever holding back

Night moves so smooth And I know she's in the Right mood to get a little loose
Run it back
We gon' run it back, run it back, yeah
Run it back
We gon' run it back, run it back, yeah
