

Alright Alright

Stillwell

They told me to keep my chin up
They told me to keep the faith
They said I'm fighting the good fight
I'm getting beat up in every round
Only reason I'm standing
Is because that it hurts when I fall down
If you're asking, to be honest, I've been stuck in the rain

I'd be lying if I said I was alright, alright
I'd be lying if I said I was alright, alright

I see the glass is half empty
Don't ask me for any hook up
Don't put me in your prayer, cause God might not answer
Not looking for any good luck
I'm diving into a pool of disaster
If you're asking, to be honest, I've been stuck in the rain

I'd be lying if I said I was alright, alright
I'd be lying if I said I was alright, alright

If you're asking, to be honest, I've been stuck in the rain
If you're asking, to be honest, I've been stuck in the rain

I'd be lying if I said I was alright, alright
I'd be lying if I said I was alright, alright
I'd be lying if I said I was alright, alright
I'd be lying if I said I was alright, alright
