

Could've Sworn

Stillwell

If you would appear, and said this was all a joke
We would celebrate lost time
One can only hope
I thought I heard you through the noise

Could've sworn I saw you there
Double take and disappear
Could've sworn I saw you in a crowd
Could've sworn I saw you there
Double take and disappear
Could've sworn I saw you in a crowd

If you were to call, and said this was all a plot
We would celebrate and drink till one of us had dropped
I thought I heard you through the noise

Could've sworn I saw you there
Double take and disappear
Could've sworn I saw you in a crowd
Could've sworn I saw you there
Double take and disappear
Could've sworn I saw you in a crowd
