

Everything'll Be Better

Stillwell

I, I'd like to try winning my way, Have a little bit of my say
And everything'll be better, better, I said...

I, I'd like to try winning my way, Have a little bit of my say
And everything'll be better, better, I said,
I, I wanna be who I be, make you see it how I see
And everything'll be better, better

Been on line for a long time, said I'm close to the goldmine
Close enough but yet so far, I said
Been on line for a long time, called my name on a headline
Close enough but yet so far, ah yeah

I, I'd like to try winning my way, Have a little bit of my say
And everything'll be better, better, I said,
I, I wanna be who I be, make you see it how I see
And everything'll be better, better

Gearing up for a long haul, traffic jam at a slow crawl
Close enough but yet so far, I said
Gearing up for a long haul, stand me up so I won't fall
Close enough but yet so far, ah yeah

I, I'd like to try winning my way, Have a little bit of my say
And everything'll be better, better, I said,
I, I wanna be who I be, make you see it how I see
And everything'll be better, better
