Bleeding Out

Stitched Up Heart

Looking into a world that's all but clear
Blind and blurry walk the line between love and fear
Innocence is lost, can't make it up now
I got you high but you never thought there'd be a comedown

He pushes you around
Hits you another time
You don't make a sound

No matter what I say
My words are empty
If you can't hear me
Shouting out
Well I can't save you now
If you won't let me
The scars no one can see
Bleeding out

Every color turns another shade of black and blue
The lies twist in your mind and turn into truth
Tell me where is the bottom, does it ever end?
Cause all I see is you doing this again and again

He pushes you around
Hits you another time
You don't make a sound

No matter what I say
My words are empty
If you can't hear me
Shouting out
Well I can't save you now
If you won't let me
The scars no one can see
Bleeding out

No matter what I say
My words are empty
If you can't hear me
Bleeding out
Well I can't save you now
If you won't let me
The scars no one can see
Bleeding out
Well I can't save you now
If you won't let me
No matter what I say
My words are empty
Bleeding out
