

Lost

Stitched Up Heart

Slowly fading I'm fading
I'm sick of waiting and waiting
Feeling lower than yesterday

When the earth is my hell
And I'm trapped in a cell
Will I ever get a break?

Please show me a sign
Cause I've tried everything
To get me through this (get me through this)

Lost inside my mind
I'm falling farther and farther behind
It's getting harder and harder to fight
I can't keep running away
Running away
From me

My feet keep slipping
And I'm losing my balance again
Can't get a grip
Can't get a hold of the state that I'm in
I'm feeling the weight
I'm feeling the weight
I'm feeling the weight
On my shoulders
Keep slipping away
Keep slipping away

Please show me a sign
Cause I've tried everything
To get me through this

Lost inside my mind
I'm falling farther and farther behind
It's getting harder and harder to fight
I can't keep running away
Running away
From me

A loss of control
Your scent is animalistic
A taste of your skin
I'm finally breaking
I know I know
It's a primitive instinct
You can't keep running away
Running away

Lost inside my mind
I'm falling farther and farther behind
It's getting harder and harder to fight
I can't keep running away
Running away

Lost inside my mind
It's getting harder and harder to fight
I can't keep running away
Running away

Lost inside my mind
It's getting harder and harder to fight
Running away
From me
