

Thunder

Stitched Up Heart

Spinning like a hurricane
Voices in my head will say
I'm dead on the inside

Spiraling right down the drain
Everything I touch turns grey
I'm not gonna deny

It's taken everything
To hear the screams
In my wake
And I create their pain

I'm feelin like the thunder
Conjuring the rain
Haunted by the ghosts
Of my mistakes
I feel like I'm on fire
Burning everything
Can you hear the roar roar
Roaring
Can you hear the roar roar
Roaring
You'll hear me roaring

Twisting like a cyclone
Crushing everything I've known
And leaving it to die

I won't say goodbye
I'll suffocate you till
You have no fight
And drag you under

It's taken everything
To see myself
In my way

I'm feelin like the thunder
Conjuring the rain
Haunted by the ghosts
Of my mistakes
I feel like I'm on fire
Burning everything
Can you hear the roar roar
Roaring
Can you hear the roar roar
Roaring
You'll hear me roaring

It's taken everything
It's taken everything
It's taken everything
To see myself in my way

I'm feelin like the thunder
Conjuring the rain

Haunted by the ghosts
I feel like I'm on fire
Burning everything
Roaring
Roaring
