

I remember not too long ago
I met this guy
He was such a charming man
The kind that makes you smile
Took me on a date and said
(I may never date again)
'Cause this love's for you and I)

I remember when I figured out
That he was sly
Whispered to my neck and I recalled why I'm fine
Told me, (don't you change your hair)
(I'm not going anywhere)
'Cause this love's for you and I)

Oh, I can't deny
That something special happened here
With you and I
And I feel the feeling every time
There's no need to wonder why
Oh, there's love for you and I

In line for tea when somethin' sweet
Was permeating in the air
I turned around and seen you standing there
With so much flare
I wasn't looking, so I was so surprised
'Cause you more than caught my eye
You smiled while I kinda stared

Beginning times up to now
It's all like a fantasy
The crying and the laughing
And everything in between
Our intimacy has a way
Of putting things right every day
This love's for you and me, I so agree

Oh, I can't deny
That something special happened here
With you and I
And I feel the feeling every time
There's no need to wonder why
Oh, there's love for you and I

Oh, my future's so clear
Like a diamond shining in the chandelier
Our love will take root and grow
And you and I both know, we know, we know

I remember our first kiss
It turned into this verse
And every time we argue
I got to get the last word
Don't worry 'bout the little things
Let's just do our thing
'Cause this one's for me and you

Oh, I can't deny
That something special happened here
With you and I
And I feel the feeling every time
There's no need to wonder why
Oh, there's love for you and I
