

Heartbeat Away

Stone Broken

I hear her screaming from the bedroom
It's the same thing I heard last night
I don't like the way he hurts you
But it happens all the time
I know he wants to take control of you
He's keeping you in his sight
I hope you're ready 'cause I warned you
Now this all ends tonight
Bang, bang, everybody wants to
You're not gonna leave here alive

Oh, you're just an animal
You're just a beast without a spine
Oh, think you're incredible
But really no one likes your kind
Nobody wants you, nobody needs you
So you better not stand in my way
Oh, you're just an animal deep inside
I'm only just a heartbeat away

You see me standing in the doorway
I swear I'll cut you down to size
We're not doing things your way
Because there ain't no compromise
I know, every single thing you do
Already in your mind
I won't see it any other way
And I can keep this up all night
Bang, bang, everybody wants to
You're not gonna leave here alive

Oh, you're just an animal
You're just a beast without a spine
Oh, think you're incredible
But really no one likes your kind
Nobody wants you, nobody needs you
So you better not stand in my way
Oh, you're just an animal deep inside
I'm only just a heartbeat away

Oh, you're just an animal
You're just a beast without a spine
Oh, think you're incredible
But really no one likes your kind
Nobody wants you, nobody needs you
So you better not stand in my way
Oh, you're just an animal deep inside
I'm only just a heartbeat, said
I'm only just a heartbeat away
