Just A Memory

Stone Broken

Your hands are shaking and your head goes round and round
You're wide awake can't get your feet back on the ground
Your eyes are open but your brain is slamming shut
Think you can handle it but you're gonna take too much

Standing aside, you're thinking what went wrong
You only decided once the damage was done
Holding on to who you used to be, ohhh

After all it's just a memory
Am I supposed to carry on?
I told you more than twice you were wasting half your life
Because it's just a memory (It's just a memory)
After all it's just a memory, after everything was said and don
e
You gave it all to me and I hope that you can see
Because it's just a memory

The only demons are the ones inside your mind
You think it's real because it happens all the time Can't see the light, it seems the walls are caving in
You think you've got control but you're never gonna win

Standing aside you're thinking what went wrong
You only decided once the damage was done
Holding on to who you used to be, ohhh

After all it's just a memory
Am I supposed to carry on?
I told you more than twice you were wasting half your life
Because it's just a memory (It's just a memory)
After all it's just a memory, after everything was said and don
e
You gave it all to me and I hope that you can see
Because it's just a memory

After all it's just a memory
Am I supposed to carry on?
I told you more than twice you were wasting half your life
Because it's just a memory (It's just a memory)
After all it's just a memory, after everything was said and don
e
Because it's just a memory
