

Not Your Enemy

Stone Broken

It doesn't change, your bed is made
It's going down
Take down the walls and let it out
Time to come clean
Say what you mean, out loud
It's all the same, no one's to blame
You've gotta try
I'm asking you to take your time
That's what you need
You've gotta free your mind

Yeah!

I won't make a sound
(I'm gonna keep it on the inside)
Yeah!
You turn it around
(But this will be the last time)
So when's it gonna stop now
Afraid of your disease
I'm trying not to fight because I'm not your enemy
Yeah!
I won't make a sound

Like letting go, stop saying no
You wonder why
How hard it is to live a lie
Not how it seems
Simplistic dreams gone by
You break the chains, you've gone insane
It's getting wild
Not telling you to live your life
Step back and see
Listen to me, this time

Yeah!

I won't make a sound
(I'm gonna keep it on the inside)
Yeah!
You turn it around
(But this will be the last time)
So when's it gonna stop now
Afraid of your disease
I'm trying not to fight because I'm not your enemy
Yeah!
I won't make a sound

Yeah!

I won't make a sound
(I'm gonna keep it on the inside)
Yeah!
You turn it around
(But this will be the last time)
So when's it gonna stop now
Afraid of your disease
I'm trying not to fight because I'm not your enemy
Yeah!
I won't make a sound
