

Wait For You

Stone Broken

I've waited too long
I've tried to find ways to carry on
But all of my days roll into one
I've gotta get away from here
Go somewhere where the waters clear
Somewhere I can clear my mind
Somewhere I can spend my time

All the things I wanted to do
Are so much better when I'm with you
Something inside of me
Is waiting for something new
So I'll just wait for you

I'm trying to hold on
I'm looking for somewhere that I belong
Sometimes I think I'm too far gone
I'm trying to get away from here
Go somewhere where the water's clear
With someone who can clear my mind
With someone I can spend my time

All the things I wanted to do
Are so much better when I'm with you
Something inside of me
Is waiting for something new
So I'll just wait for you

To come and find me
If you only knew
It would terrify me
If you had a clue
What would you say
Oh

All the things I wanted to do
Are so much better when I'm with you
Something inside of me
Is waiting for something new
So I'll just wait for you

All the things I wanted to do
Are so much better when I'm with you
Something inside of me
Is waiting for something new
So I'll just wait for you
