Stone Sour

Yeah

I'm a little secret, wanted pride and joy
Still I felt it lingering, I knew I didn't have a choice
I watched his sweet destruction. He loved his air consumption
He got what he deserved but...

The motherfuckers back today!
And it was given to me now people, help me
And I am my father's son, and I don't think I like this to happen
Can't be hereditary, now my man's gone despairing
I think I've gonna lost my mind, I'm warning you

Whoa, it was given to me now
Whoa, given to me
Whoa, it was given to me now
Whoa
And I don't think I like this to happen

Now I'm not a secret, nothing beats denial
And I can feel it festering, I think I'll let it grow a while
I love my sweet destruction, I live for air consumption
I'll get what I deserve 'cause

The motherfucker's back today!
And it was given to me now people, help me
And I am my father's son, and I don't think I like this to happen
This wasn't supposed to happen and I still don't know what happened
I see it ever lead to you
I thought I warned you

Whoa, it was given to me now
Whoa, given to me
Whoa, it was given to me now
Whoa
And I don't think I like this

Give it to me!

Whoa, it was given to me now
Whoa, given to me
Whoa, it was given to me now
Whoa
And I don't think I like this
