

Live Like You're On Fire

Stone Sour

Everybody's looking tight
Like futuristic dioramas
We're gonna party on tonight
So stick a finger in your shackles baby
I wanna tie your laces

You're single handed
And I will join in
I'd like to offer you a bona fide miracle
Does anybody,
Love anybody,
Or is it simply just emotion turned to chemical?

Reaction
Affection
Proving me wrong when I'm feeling low
Distraction
Redaction
Don't tell me why 'cause I don't wanna know

We know exactly how this night will end
We both are ready for the fall again
Before we burn we need to understand
Tomorrows don't exist
So tonight live like you're on fire

Don't be scared of who you are
You're just another super animal
You want it so I get permanent, so severe
You better be compatible baby
Before I drive you crazy

Your single digits
And double standards
Aren't just enough to keep you occupied, satisfied
You think you're rambling
I think you're fascist
It doesn't matter, the other one's on your side

Reaction
Affection
Proving me wrong when I'm feeling low
Distraction
Redaction
Don't tell me why 'cause I don't wanna know

We know exactly how this night will end
We both are ready for the fall again
Before we burn we need to understand
Tomorrows don't exist
So tonight live like you're on fire

We know exactly how this night will end
Before we burn, everybody understand
So tonight live like you're on fire

(Fire)
(Fire)
You better live like you're on fire
