Stone Sour

And I wasn't eighteen, it never happened before
Mine for the taking, I passed it up all

Now she has a soul
Now she has a soul
Now she has a soul
Now - I know
I lost my chance with some girl

I turned to nineteen, my Mum had turned unaware
This was my doing
Don't make it up 'cause

Now she has a soul
Now she has a soul
Now she has a soul
Now - I know
I lost my chance with some girl

I adore you
Better matureable phase
I adore you
And slandered my toggles instead

Now I am wanted, that's all my mirrored disguise
Say you are wandering
Wondering is all for the

Now she has a face
Now she has a face
Now she has a face
Now - I know
Ignorance is bliss and faith

I adore you
Back and my mystery is solved
I adore you
She looks like me after all
