

Never Enough

Stone Temple Pilots

You're all bark
But no bite
It's alright
You'll live a little
It's okay
You're on fire
You have style
It's just a little wild

What a poor little baby
Ah, such a poor little baby

No, it's never enough
You hide it away
Where no one can touch

Now you tell me
That you can do better
But we both know you can't
'Cause you'll never
Put away your anarchy
'Cause now we both know
That you're no good for me

In the dark
Without light
It's alright
You'll live a little
It's okay
You conspire
With desire
It's just a little wild

What a poor little baby
Ah, such a poor little baby

No, it's never enough
You hide it away
Where no one can touch

Now you tell me
That you can do better
But we both know you can't
'Cause you'll never
Put away your anarchy
'Cause now we both know
That you're no good for me

No, this is never enough
You hide it away
Where no one can touch
It's never enough
It's just never enough
You hide it away

Now you tell me

That you can do better
'Cause you'll never
'Cause now we both know
No good for me
