

Perdida

Stone Temple Pilots

Thank you for the memories I'll carry
But time is said to move along
Never been one to do things gracefully
I know, for that, I'm always wrong

Oh, perdida, come and go
Stay with me tonight
But in the morning, please be gone

I know the changes are the ones you seek
I'm lost in circles most the time
As stronger reason gets the best of me
Behind the smile, I'm slowly dying

Oh, perdida, come and go
Stay with me tonight
But in the morning, please be gone
And oh, perdida visits me
I'll meet you in the sky
Where the winds turn into breeze

Oh, perdida, come and go
Stay with me tonight
But in the morning, please be gone
And oh, perdida visits me
I'll meet you in the sky
Where the winds turn into breeze
