

Years

Stone Temple Pilots

All alone, the years go by
Now they're gone I wonder why
We lived a lifetime only to say goodbye

Once there was a time when love was new
Remember when we said "I do"?
And now you've gone away
The years remember those days

Now we're here and after all
Who's to blame for what we lost?
Years have cracked through me with nowhere to hide
'Cause they know

Once there was a time when love was new
Remember when we said "I do"?
And now you've gone away
The years remember those days
