

Feeling Lonely

Stonebwoy

Eh you ah sometimes it gets lonely lonely
Lonely lonely lonely lonely lonely arhhhh

Feeling lonely yes you, somebody will be there for you
When the world is coming at you
Somebody will be there for you and when you finally find an angel
Who's gonna take you through
To make you know one thing for sure
Everything happens for a reason

Why you cry why you linga sunshine after
Rain everything has it's time and season
Empress, brown sugar too much
Stressing will make your beauty fade away
Focus on your strength not on your weakness
That's the way to win it
Even if tomorrow is not a better day
It's never too late

Feeling lonely yes you, somebody will be there for you
When the world is coming at you
Somebody will be there for you and when you finally find an angel
Who's gonna take you through
To make you know one thing for sure
Everything happens for a reason

So let me take you to the river stream
Pun ah vibes and relaxing baby powerful
Words ah come at you arhn
You're a warrior queen you ah pah I dah king
You no see clear love ah overflow girl
Love you too me know say me know love you want arh
Baby on top your garden be like your wall Cause I'll never go

Feeling lonely yes you, somebody will be there for you
When the world is coming at you
Somebody will be there for you and when you finally find an angel
Who's gonna take you through
To make you know one thing for sure
Everything happens for a reason

Only puh time mi take a decision that make to start to regret
Put in the time and energy but you never feel it yet
Make you feel like your life is moving in reverse
It makes you vex but instead
Be strong be hopeful that somebody is meant for you
Move on and bear in mind that everything will be alright

Feeling lonely yes you somebody will be there for you
And when the world is coming at you
Somebody will be there for you
And when you finally find an angel who's gonna take you through
To make you know one thing for sure everything happens for a reason
Feeling lonely yes you somebody will be there for you
And when the world is coming at you
Somebody will be there for you
And when you finally find an angel who's gonna take you through

To make you know one thing for sure everything happens for a reason
