

Excited

Stoned Jesus

Oh here it comes here it comes again
As you're stuck stuck stuck stuck stuuuck in your old van
Hitting same old road
Running back and forth
Hearing questions you have heard a million times before
"Where were you yesterday?"
"Where you going tomorrow?"
"Are you excited?" so excited

Just one hour against the twenty-three
Feeding feeding on your energy
Just one hour against the twenty-three
Giving back us three

"You look tired"
"Got any sleep?"
"How long you've been doing this?"
"Can I have your pick?"
"Do you remember me?"
"Remember anything?"
Or maybe you were looking for it for so long
You forgot just what it means

Oh here it comes here it comes again
Just another day on tour to numb the pain
"Let's take a picture"
"Can you sign this?"
"Are you excited?" so excited

Just one hour against the twenty-three
Feeding feeding on your energy
Just one hour against the twenty-three
Giving back to you from me

Walk the line
One more time
All you know
Goes to show
Show, show, show...
