

Til the Morning Comes

Stoney LaRue

Till the morning comes
Just let me lay here by your side
And feel your sweet touch one last time
Till the morning comes

Till the morning comes
Let's just try and make believe
That we're never gonna leave
Till the morning comes

Just surrender the pain
To the sound of the rain
Though our love's at an end
Let's just try and pretend
Till the morning comes
Till the morning comes

Just wipe those tears away
Forget the hurt and broken trust
We owe each other at least six months
Till the morning comes

Just let me see your smile baby
We both know it's been way too long
Forget who's right or who is wrong
Till the morning comes

Just surrender the pain
To the sound of the rain
Though our love's at an end
Let's just try and pretend
Till the morning comes
Till the morning comes
Till the morning comes
