

Souldance

Stormwind

The walls
were turned to ashes, skyward
you're warding off the demons i recall

a journey through the time that we found
did you shiver deep in your spines?

We crossed the line
and we finally find.
The journey of our lives
together all the time!

You are the soul i've waited for!
Savior of my happiness
empress of my true faith!

You are my honey-warm delight!
Take my open hand
for a soul dance!
For a souldance!

I trust my heart and follow the signs
like the colours in your cat eyes!

Beneath the mountains over the clouds dancing souls with passion in their hearts!
