

Runescape

Stormwitch

Have you ever wished to be a knight
Or the master of a magical ceremony
Do you think you have courage and pride
Survive defeat and you live endlessly

Runescape gives you everything that you need
Every day live you can escape
Runescape is a place where all the dreamers meet
They all dwell inside this landscape

You can forge a sword and be a man of war
Or be a magician and see the future clear
Search for the key and find the door
Grow strong and wiser year after year

With the help of others you can find your way
Give those support who are in need
There will come a day if you don't believe
And you will be the best indeed
