Trust in the Fire

Stormwitch

You feel the metal power the flame is burning at all hours hold on to, on to your dream I want you to shout and scream

Oh – trust in the fire
when the night is cold
it will keep you warm
the shadows of darkness
can't do you no harm
so trust in the fire

Get up and stand together and the heat will last forever believe me, you're not alone rock fever's bred in the bone

it will keep you warm
can't do you no harm
